Due to material production expense, programs are invoiced according to reservation numbers. All notices of cancellation, re-schedule requests and changes in number of participants attending must be reported to Dogwood Canyon Audubon Center ten business days in advance of the scheduled visit. No-shows and failure to provide adequate notification (ten business days) of cancellation or decrease in numbers attending will forfeit full program fee; the program will be billed according to original reservation. Programs that have not met the minimum number of participants within two weeks of the scheduled program date may be cancelled. In the event that we cancel your program, a full refund will be issued and individuals will be contacted directly. Additional participants attending the day of the program in excess of the reserved number will be invoiced at double per person rate stated above.
